

Santa Cruz Sentinel Monday, September 28, 1959

Associated Press News In Pictures

SITTING UP STUNT — Red Army men carry rubble blocks into Moscow's Lenin Stadium where they build blocks above heads to form a highway for motorcycles.

FLYING ADIEU — British jets, including a Hunter, fly over Norfolk, Eng., with veterans Harrison and Spiller, bottom. Prop craft are to be retired.

THE SPIAN ARCH — Actor Robert Fuller gives archery pointers to actress Ruta Lee during outing at Griffith Park in Los Angeles. Fuller carries extra arrow in pocket.

LEAD NAVY — Wayne Hardie, Navy's new all-weather, basic football in center Jim Davis of St. Carmel, Pa., 1959 captain, at start of practice in Annapolis.

TOUCHING MEETING — John Wenz, 54, retired Philadelphia bus driver, leans over to give an affectionate hug at lower lip of Jimmy the hippo, an old son friend.

HEADS LEGION — Martin R. McNally, 44, Newburgh, N.Y. lawyer, was elected National Commander of the American Legion at convention in Minneapolis.

HIGH SAMPLE — German stunt man Arnold Pohl over handrail atop Empire State Building for display of daring-do prior to trip to Hollywood and film work.

TUNNEL TOP — These aluminum plates, supported by concrete pillars, are over to entrance of tunnel under Paris' Oite Airport. They are gradually closed to permit drivers to accustom themselves to light change.

LOOSE LOOK — With dress fashions above in the news, model, actress Anna Russell displays a housewife's fashion dress in the window of the London store.

QUIET IN THE CITY — This little scene was filmed out for from the Madison, Wis., business district when an egret and her mate came together on a boat river bar.

RACY OLDSTER — Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wilson of Nevada, Ohio, wave from 1959 Jean-driven Locomobile in New York. It was chosen as 1959, entered its annual old car race between London and Brighton, Eng.

SLOPING SOVIETS — Team of Russian mountain climbers winds its way up the snow-covered French Alps during climb towards 15,311-foot high Mont Blanc near Chamonix.

FUTURE WAVE — Among the new winter coliffures modeled at Berlin show are those featuring short cut hair with the waves touching the forehead and cheeks.

EARLY PREPPING — Driver Jimmy Crohn uses a goat to demonstrate fundamentals of harness racing to young Jim Jr., 14, in victory, and Earl, 6, at Vicksburg, N.Y. track.

A F E T Y A F I L M