

Hospital Guilds Plan 'Evening of Theater'

BY MARY MATTHEW

A special program in the category of benefits is "An Evening of Theater" April 29 and 30, sponsored by the La Canada-Flintridge Orthopaedic Guild and the Glendale-Foothill Auxiliary of the Crippled Children's Guild.

Richard Boone, stage, motion picture and television star, is producing the show which will be limited to two evening performances and a Saturday matinee in Glendale College Auditorium.

The program will include Mr. Boone playing scenes from "Macbeth" with Barbara Baxley, who has flown in from New York especially for this production. Miss Baxley appeared in the Broadway production of William Inge's "Dark at the Top of the Stairs."

Mr. Boone is producing a special number, "Ballad of Sam Houston," for the program and will appear in scenes from "The Rivalry" in which he played last season on Broadway.

Mrs. Don Sterling Brown, general chairman of the benefit, has announced that all proceeds will be used to purchase equipment for the pediatric floor of the new Orthopaedic Hospital.

Performers will include Kathy Nolan, Sanford Meisner, Robert Fuller, Ken Curtis, Jester Hairston, Jack Marshall, Denver Pyle and Perry Cook.

Mrs. Brown will be assisted by Mmes. O. Warren Hillgren, Harry Newman, Roger Coble, Edmund Ford, Ira Crocker and Fred Spear, members of the La Canada-Flintridge Guild.

Mrs. Francis Maywood, the Glendale Auxiliary benefit chairman, will be aided by Mmes. Richard Matthews, W. E. Sigler, Edson Kincaid, Gerald Campbell and Patrick Paige.
