

"Laramie" co - star Bob Fuller has a 1,300 - pound crate of gifts in his driveway. The gifts came from more than 2,000 Japanese fans. Fuller has become one of Japan's top TV favorites. The gifts are the result of a successful 5-week personal appearance tour he made there earlier this year. The gifts include several samurai swords, an archery set, hand - painted dolls and a large hand - carved bronze horse.